Rules.

I. The Honorary Associates to subscribe 7s. 6d. a-year, and Working Associates 2s. 6d. a-year, to be paid to the Branch Secretary. Each Working Associate to provide a subscription of 2s. 6d. a-year.

II. Associates' Subscriptions and all Donations to be invested in Penny Savings' Bank, Callander, by Secretary; postage and printing expenses, etc., being deducted.

III. Meetings of Associates to be held Quarterly, of which due notice will be given. Three shall constitute a quorum.

IV. Girls and Young Women of good character may be admitted to the Society from the age of Thirteen and upwards, by the Associates, with the consent of their parents or employers. Each Member to receive a Card of Membership. Should any Member unfortunately lose her character, she shall forfeit her Card.

V. Members to subscribe One Penny a-Month, or One Shilling a-Year, to be paid to the Associate of their District.

VI. Members desiring situations to communicate with the Secretary, who will confer with the Associates on the subject. Every endeavour will be made to give assistance.

VII. 3s. 9d. from each Honorary Associate, 6d. from each Member, and 6d. in the £ on Working Associates' Subscriptions, and on all Donations, to go to Central Fund; the remainder to be retained by Secretary for benefit of Branch.

VIII. When a Member leaves the Parish the Associate of her District shall transfer her, as directed in Rules for Associates.

IX. A Tea Meeting of the Branch to be held Annually, and a Quarterly Social Meeting, of both of which due notice will be given.

X. Members to be encouraged to place their savings in "Penny Savings' Bank," Callander. A Bonus of 6d. on every 10s. up to £5 to be made, provided the Member shows her Bank Book, with entries.

XI. Each Member to receive a copy of The Home Friend monthly from the Associate of her District.

XII. Members transferred from another Branch shall receive all privileges given by this Branch except premiums for good service, for which they shall be eligible from the Branch that first admitted them.

XIII. Each Member to acquaint her Associate directly she has arranged to change her situation if in service, or of any change of address.

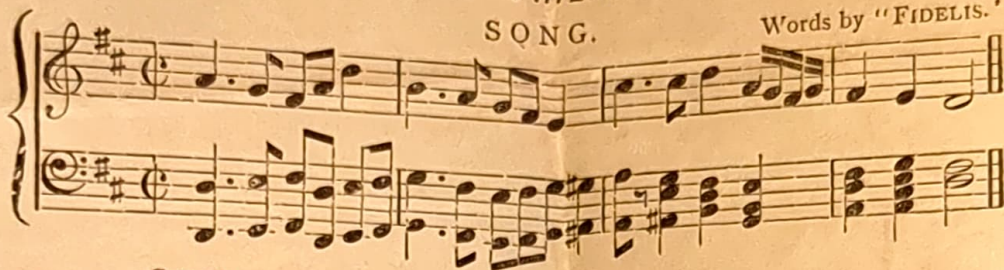

XIV. For the encouragement of Members in service, a premium of 2s. 6d., or its equivalent, to be given to any Member on completing two years' service; 5s., or equivalent, for three years; and so on, commencing from time of joining the Society.

SCOTCH GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

SONG.

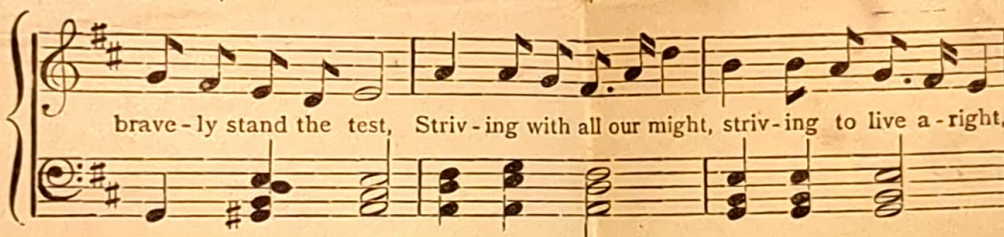

Words by "FIDELIS."

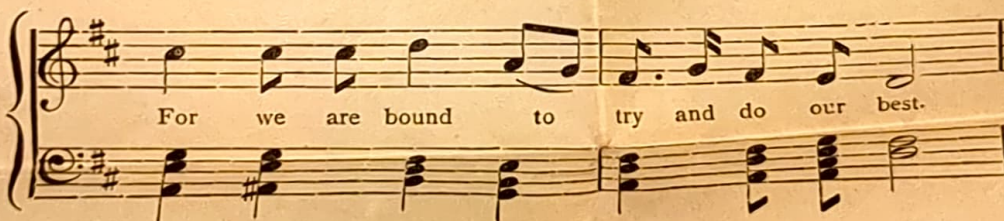

CHORUS.

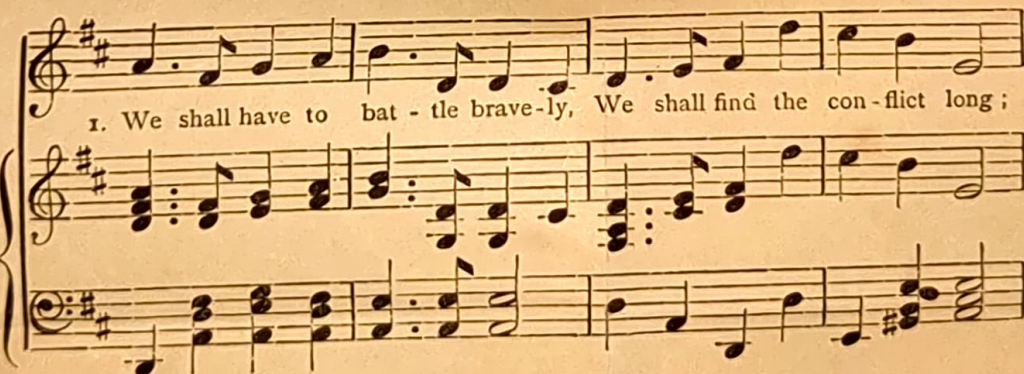

Joined hand in hand, for the right we make a stand. With GOD's help we'll brave-ly stand the test, Striv-ing with all our might, striv-ing to live a-right,

For we are bound to try and do our best.

1. We shall have to bat-tle brave-ly, We shall find the con-flict long ;

Some will sneer, and some de-spise us, Let us cheer our-selves with song.

2. Some will tease, and some will mock us,
Tempting us our rules to break ;
Let us keep our promise bravely,
And bear the scoff for JESU's sake.

3. So then, when the battle's over,
When our conflicts all are past,
We who fought on earth together,
Shall meet again in heaven at last.
